

Archian was sitting in the canteen drinking his favorite drink from his bucket, when two Hutts sat down at the bench next to him.

They started talking about business, travels and new bets on who will win the Pro Bowl Tournament this year.

Suddenly Qyreia showed up, walked past them without noticing Archian enjoying his beverage. She stood next to the bar, and ordered tequila.

Hutts caught up on her arrival, and whispered to each other.

"I've heard a rumor that Arcona's Consul has a secret room in Big Wiggly Fantastic Casino. Someone said that she has a big 12 meter long bed there. She filled it up with soft plush toys like pink Teddy Ewok's, pink 10 meters tall Porgs, pink lifesize Wookies, a fridge full of Tequila, and for some unknown reason long pink fake lightsaber - I'm curious what this lightsaber is used for..."

Archian almost choked, and spilled drink out from his snout after hearing it.
