

Imperial Scholae Intelligence
Chief of Analysis
Headquarters, Clan Scholae Palatinae
Seraph

ISICA-CSP-76

Subject: Person Of Interest Within The Hegemonia

Name: "Airi" (full name suspected to be Stehloa'ir'ianod)

Species: Chiss

Occupation: Ozyly-esehembo (sky-walker)

Age: 10 standard years

Sex: Female

Physical Description:

The sky-walker "Airi" is a petite girl, standing approximately 1.3 meters weighing approximately 31.7 kilograms. Her complexion is considered dark for a Chiss. In public or on duty her hair is worn up in a bun or topknot. In private or incognito she has been observed to wear her hair down. Her public and duty attire has been observed to be a simple naval uniform. Her private or incognito attire has been observed as non-descript, common Chiss clothing. She has never been observed with a weapon but is never without a bodyguard while in public or on duty. She has been observed as alone or with peers while in private or incognito.

Assessment:

"Airi" is suspected to be the most gifted sky-walker in the history of the Hegemonia. While attending the Ozyly-El-Attiimar Monastery, she was the personal student and protégé of the Headmistress "Alcana". Her prowess with the "Third Sight" is such that she is barred from service in combat for fear of her loss. Her navigation skills are typically utilized for high-priority or high-difficulty voyages. Personnel within the Monastery suspect that "Airi" may retain her "Third Sight" well into adulthood and possibly for life. We believe she is being groomed to be the future Headmistress of the Ozyly-El-Attiimar Monastery. It is also suspected that "Airi" may be seen as an oracle of sorts by the Syndicure.

We believe that "Airi" holds immense significance to the Syndicure and Ozyly-El-Attiimar Monastery, though this is being kept from the girl and the Hegemonia at large.