

- Stripper Name: Baby hott
- Birth Name: Miss Iyam hornay.
- Race: Mandalorian (human)
- Height: 5'10
- Weight: 94 pounds
- Physical Description:

When not wearing her famed helmet, this Mandalorian hunk of ass has silky long brown hair and seductive blue eyes to match. Her facial features are soft, with perfect smooth lips causing many Sith and Jedi alike to feel some sort of 'disturbance in the force'.

Moving down her firm and rather women like body, she is well built for a stripper, perhaps due to her Mandalorian heritage. However it is her melons which attract most potential customers; as confirmed by a quote made the esteemed womanizer Obi-wan Kenobi regarding a similar topic;

"That's no moon...that's a space station."

Her skin is toned just right, as is best demonstrated at her abdomen. Her mix of armour and casual 'clothing' leaves very little to the imagination, but even more to the minds of those who want her.

- Backstory:

Iyam was born on the homeworld of Mandalore in 8ABY. She led a quiet life at first, most likely because the Mandalorians decided to let the galaxy fuck itself dryly before the introduction of the Yuuzhan Vong. I bet Boba Fett was kicking himself for that one...but I digress.

As one of the few women on the frontlines during the war at the age of 17, she felt it was her duty to put a variety of exotic shows for her dear battle brothers to ease the stresses of combat. Indeed, any stain this caused on her honour was promptly wiped away with a averagely clean rag.

After the war she decided she had enjoyed her time with the men so much that the Mandawhorian decided to involve herself in that career more full time. As such, she is now a stripper and soldier both.
