

TALDRYAN OPERATIONS BATTLE ASSESSMENT

FLEET ACTION TALSOC-KTFW-0208

OPERATION PURPLE VRELT

INTRODUCTION

Foreword & References

Foreword

Ultimately, it was determined during the earliest stages of this competition by the members of our team that the representation of this entry as a traditional battle plan would be disingenuous. Given the conditions and staggering odds that we're dealing with, and the constraints of our mission goal, we determined that this battle plan would need to take the form of an ad hoc strategy at best.

What we will be presenting during this battle plan is a combination of pre-prepared intelligence reports that all Taldryan naval ships would have access to. We have a detailed and far reaching intelligence service, and have been actively keeping tabs on the Dark Council, other Clans, as well as other entities throughout the galaxy.

As such, we are able to bring out information from our archives, and in some cases, that information is being updated on the fly to adjust the strategy that we are being forced to concoct.

Finally, please make note that given the destination our battle plans take us, we are presenting this battle plan not as a document to be prepared ahead of time and presented, but rather a packaged data dump from our ships to Taldryan's Strategic Operations Command.
