===Physical Description===
```

Tall, standing at about 1.8 meters, athletic build.

Red skin, horns, red eyes.

Tends to stick with clothing colored to aid in camouflage and to avoid general detection.

Carries an A280 blaster rifle with a high powered scope.

===Ability Assessment===

Azzao is believed to be an expert marksman and gun for hire. It's believed he's responsible for over a dozen confirmed kills on S.C.E.P.T.E.R. officers. Extremely dangerous, he's capable of making excellent shots over great distances.

It's also believed he's more than capable of surviving on his own for long periods of time in the wilds. We believe the enemy uses him not only as a skirmisher and mid-range sniper, but also as a competent scout.

It should be noted that Azzao is a mercenary, and if captured may be viable for recruitment through employment, rather than simple execution.
