Sights to see!

New Sadow Palace– Temple of Sorrow

Visit the Temple of Sorrow, the HQ of Clan Naga Sadow! A tour through the temple will show where the PCON and CON reside, ruling over their subjects. A quick view of the Overlord's office can be arranged for an extra fee if he isn't around. Don't tell anyone though or it will be both of our heads on the chopping block!

After the office's we will head down to the Rancor pit. Please be advised that should you fall victim to the Rancor, we are not responsible for injury or death. Once you have had your fill of the pit, we will head to the barracks, where you can watch the newest members of Naga Sadow train. Once we are finished with the tour of the Temple we will venture out to the Old Ruins.

Old Ruins– Palace of Orion

The Palace of Orion was the former home of Sith Lord Urias Orion. A respected and feared Dark Lord who reigned during the Sith Empire era. His palace was destroyed in 16 ABY and was ordered to be restored in 28 ABY.

A star map has been found in the temple, and you will be able to cast your eyes upon it, albeit it being a replica. Venture and explore the ancient hallways, maybe you will find some things that have been overlooked.

After this we will have a lunch break. So please make sure you have enough credits to purchase lunch from one of our shuttle services.

Optional sites

Temple of Fire— known as the Last Breath Mine amongst inhabitants of Sepros, this mine has seen the death of many a slaves. Take a stroll through history and don't get lost!

Temple of Blood— The Blackguard HQ. Due to restrictions we cannot enter the Temple, but you can maybe catch a glimpse of these elusive warriors outside the temple as we fly by.

Incursion Megalith— Honor and remember our fallen brothers from the Yuuzhan Vong incursions. Commissioned by Macron in 27 ABY.

Sepros is Sexy!

What are you waiting for?! Sepros is THE place to be this season, with its rich history and forestry landscape, there is something to do for everyone! But wait, theres more! For a limited time only, we can offer you a trip to the recently rediscovered Wookiee colony! Attempts have been made to communicate with these furry creatures, and they have allowed a select number of visitors to visit their homes and see how they live! In collaboration with Clan Naga Sadow, any profits gained from this trip will be distributed fairly amongst the population.

If you are lucky you will be allowed to hunt with them. It has been whispered that the Wookiee tribe has perfected the art of hunting the Ack-lay, a rare and deadly creature that thrives in the forest. Killing one is seen as the pinnacle of strength, cunning and patience amongst the Wookiee's. Will you witness one up close and feel the thrill of the hunt?
