

Azor's TOR Fashionistas Entry: Grand Master's Royal Guard

As Azor has risen in the ranks of the Dark Jedi Brotherhood, he has learned of the Royal Guard. A once noble calling to protect the Grand Master. But too many people were only interested in gaining the Red Armor the GMRG was known for and were not loyal to the Grand Master.

Upon entering the GMRG Azor wanted to honor those whom came before him. But he also wanted to prove his loyalty to the Grand Master, his Clan, his Master, and his Battle Team by helping to bring back the noble status of the Grand Master's Royal Guard. With this in mind, he put together a set of armor that was both noble looking and battle worthy! The yellow triangle symbol on the shoulder guards shows the 3 societies that Azor has joined: Grand Master's Royal Guard, Inquisitorius, and The Shadow Academy. The yellow bar above the triangle shows that he is part of Battle Team Grey Wolf.
