

Her Red Hair

Taranae, or Taranae why is your hair so red?
Your locks of fire surely make most men dead.
From the burn of your beauty most men get burned.
But everyday they come back for their turn!

Your sable style moves with style and grace.
Makes me think you're always in a race.
Those red blades glisten with power.
Maybe someday you'd give me just an hour?

Alas those days are coming to end.
For myself will be full of food by then.
It's one thing to love a woman for there embrace.
But man this food they serve here sure makes me wanna taste.
