

Headshot/Image	Bell [Privateer] [Scoundrel] [Human][Female], [Left] Height: [1.62]m / [5'4"]ft. , Weight: [49.8]kgs / [110]lbs
Physical Description		Preferred Weapons
Appearance: Bell is a human female of average height. She has short curly dark brown hair, which she either ties up or lets it fall. Her skin is a light tan from being out in the sun. She has many lash marks across her arms and back as a result of being a slave for years, though she often covers those up. She is muscular, but more lean due to years of malnourishment. She is often seen either smiling or lost in thought, though anyone who understand emotions can see sadness in her eyes. Clothing: Bell most often wears a white leather jacket, and dark blue racing pants. Under her jacket is a black shirt. On more formal occasions she has a white and red dress she will wear with a set of heals. The dress is form fitting, though not revealing. No matter what she has on however she wears a black bow around her neck.		* DH-17 Blaster Pistol
General Aspects
We're Not Together Together Since being freed from slavery, Bell has become a close companion of the biker Tisto. The two of them are close, and more than likely when Bell isn't sleeping she is seen by his side. The two seem to just fit together, no matter what they are at, and this has lead many to confuse their friendship for something more.	Competitive Spirit Bell loves to argue and compete. Since she couldn't compete as a slave, she gets a surge of adrenaline whenever she can. Whether it's racing, gambling, or arguing, she doesn't care. This has led to issues among her colleagues who don't understand why she does this, though the few who know the reason don't really care.
Personality Aspects
Former Slave Bell grew up never knowing her family. She was sold into slavery very young, and was put to work almost immediately. However due to her age she	We'll Break His Legs Bell is a very protective person, and when any of her friends are being picked on she will defend them, sometimes confusing friendly teasing as

This often gets her in trouble as she refuses to back down during these events. However, because of this her friends know that no matter what she will be there for them, as long as no one else is being teased that is.

Combat Aspects

Ironwood Bell loves her blaster pistol, and hates having to give it up. As a result, she has focused in on close quarters combat, either shooting or combining her pistol-cuffs into her unarmed fighting. While she has a very strong offensive side because of this, she lacks in defence, and sometimes struggles to not fight defensively.	Supersonic Princess Since being freed Bell has found that she loves to fly. Learning to pilot a swoop from her "rescuer" and later learning to fly fighters and small transports, she has learned to fight with any of these vehicles. Her method of starship combat is much like her regular combat, often keeping close to her target, which has lead her to crash into wreckage more than once.
