

Deceit and Deception

A bond at one point strong

Now torn apart and gone

A group that was once a friend

A bond that believed to have no end

A group that is now a foe

After an alliance that seemed ages ago

The buddies of kindness became scum

It is time to hear the beat of the drum

They will never know the extent of what occurred

A war that will be and continue to be blurred

A war that will wage destruction on both sides

With anything that could turn the tides

Scholae Palatinae will rise above their threats

To make Naga Sadow their pets

We will prevail in this feud

Naga Sad will be screwed
