

Planet Daalem

It took a couple of days, but the task force made up of Jo Mizu, Len Iode, Aaleeshah, Korroth and lead by Sa Ool finally caught up to Mako Henmory near the cliffs not too far from the Satele Shan Base. Mako had teamed up with Tistito "Tisto" Kingang to try and take over the two planets that the houses Hoth and Satele Shan was given permission to base on by the Vatali Empire in the Kias System. The task force left Lavanth and Christopher "Nero" Winchester to guard over Tisto after they got to him and knocked him out on Solyiat. A flash of lightning came across the sky lower than it normally does on Daleem but it doesn't worry the people on the planet wakes Sa up enough to draw his lightsaber "No Name" and pointed it at his soon to be ex-Quaestor.

"Surrender Mako it's over, no one needs to get hurt." Spoke the metallic voice of the Kel Dor

With a smirk from the pale human known as Mako Henmory, the team had only split seconds from when Mako jumped into the middle of their group and activating his two sabers called "Frozen and Ended Time" forcing the three with lightsabers to block from being struck at. A laser bolt was shot at Mako forcing him to jump out the way and knocking Jo down with her Saber flying elsewhere while looking to see who fired at him. Aaleeshah had her two vibroblades out to act as a protector to Len who is to be making a few pot shots at Mako to keep him on his toes.

Deactivating his sabers Mako jumped at the Pau'an male, and with a few quick strikes from his legs, knees, elbows, and fist that almost looked like a Wampa was attacking Korroth tried to defend himself but was eventually knocked out. Trying to slow down Mako's attack on Korroth, the other three Jedi was using various stones on the ground with the force throwing them at the Pale human. As soon as the other male Jedi went down, Sa jumped in with a few strikes of his royal purple blade at Mako only for his opponent to dodge the blade moving like a monkey-lizard without activating his own. A few of Len's pot shots had hit Mako but mostly was like a graze then a true wound.

Being stronger than Sa, Mako grabbed the Kel Dor and tossed him to hit the side of the cliff. Jo and Aaleeshah had looked at each other having similar thoughts go through their minds. Aaleeshah had put her blades away and got her Retractable Shock Whip out and started to swing it at Mako. The whip finally wrapped itself around Mako's left forearm causing a battle of strength between the two. Jo Mizu with a quick burst of speed ran at Mako forcing him to either get hit or to try to jump over the attack. Mako had jumped and Len took a shot at him striking him in the left shoulder. Aaleeshah with her whip still attached to Mako pulled on it to cause Mako to start spinning. Sa watching all this go down quickly got up from his slump and grabbed at the spinning Mako. With a good hold on the human and using the motion of the spinning Sa smashed Mako's face into the cliffs wall knocking him out. The in fighting of the Clan has now come to an end with Mako and Tistito being held in the same cell on the Kias.

Holding Cell on Kias

Mako finally waking up noticed he had suppression cuffs on him and he wasn't alone. He saw he was in a cell with the Kiffar male he teamed up with and that Tisto is looking like the world ended for him. Asking why he looked down and how he got caught, Tisto responded with they blew up my swoop bike.
