As I look at the human who was sitting across from me asking me how did I survive the massacre on the VSDII Paladin. I took a sip of my drink and I leaned in to talk "Who said I was on that ship when it happened?" Slowly pulling out my blaster under the table and aim it at him, he looked at me then the table "There is no need for the blaster I will not harm you." I kept my blaster at the ready and looked at him in the eyes. He looked back at me " I sow you on the ship that day that is how I know you were there." I took one more sip of my drink and put it down and I told him my tell.

The doors opened I walked out of engineering into the hallway and down to the shuttle bay. As I walked by one of the rooms that was acting as a classroom and sow the headmaster Dacien Victae di Plagia talking to some of the students talking about "Undesirables" and then I saw how three students were killed one of them being a Cathar I wanted to attack but knew there would be no point as I myself was a undesirable. I took off in a sprint to the the shuttle bay as two security guards came around the corner and told me to stop I knocked them both down and kept running, as I got to the shuttle bay I sow that there were four guards by my ship. I ducked behind some containers and sow some students hiding behind them scared as can be I walked over to them "Are you guys ok?" they looked at me and nodded there heads. I do not know what came over me but I told them if we could get to my ship we should be ok. I looked over the containers to see were at, I saw that two of the guards were gone I then looked at the students and said that they need to move fast when I tell them to. I snuck up behind one of the guards and put my hand over his mouth then slit his throat, when the other guard saw me I stabbed him in his throat keeping him from screaming. I looked up on the walkway into the ship just as the other two guards were coming out of my ship they saw me and raised there blaster I closed my eyes waiting to be shat I heard blaster fire but not feel anything hit, I heard two hard thumbs I opened my eyes to look and saw Chippie his droid standing over the bodies holding a blaster "Sir you best hurry we are ready to go." I waved my hand to let the students know to come and move fast. I waited till all of them were in my ship and got into the cockpit to take off, I started the engines and got us out the shutter bay as fast as I could as we exited the shuttle bay we got a transmission in saying to return to the ship or they will open fire “Chippie get us into hyperspace.” Chippie looked at me “Sir the hyperspace engine is not working it seems.” I looked at the students “Chippie go see what’s the matter with it.” as he exited the cockpit the Paladin started to open fire on us and sent out some T-65XJ X-wings after us. I was doing my best to outrun and outmaneuver them, it felt like we were not going to make it as the ship was shot at over and over and just when I was about to give up hope Chippie yelled to the hyperdrive engine was back up and run so I jumped us into hyperspace and got us out of there.

The human looked at me and did not know what to say the look on his face “What happened to the students?” he asked I smiled “Well some stayed with me and others joined transport ships to try and hide from the brotherhood.” The human thanked me for my time and got up and walked at side I followed him out and saw him turn a corner, as i peeked around the corner I could see him take out a holo transmitter and heard him say “My lord I know where some of the students got a way to I ran up behind him stabbing him in the back with my knife killing him before he could speak I then crushed the holo transmitter and walked back into the bar.
