

Rulvak Qurroc - Captain of the Nighthawk, Apprentice to Arcia Cortel, Age: 52

Rulvak was a relative young Sephi. He was always one to stand up for what he believed in, regardless if it was the popular idea. The crew of the Nighthawk called him Captain for over a year and has grown fond of him. Being relatively new to the Clan as a whole, he had quickly captured the hearts of many, regardless of how dark they might seem. He leaves us on this plane to help us through the Force. May he guide us away from the path of the insane monster who has slain him and many others.
