

Rage

By Lexiconus Qor / #13880

*Someday my time will come,
And you shall pay the price,
For what you have done,
You shall see, I'm not that nice.*

*Someday I will haunt you,
I will promise you that,
Now you don't have a clue,
But you will wish we have never met.*

*Someday, because I won't forget,
And no one will hear you beg for mercy,
You ain't seen nothing yet,
So listen closely.*

*Someday you'll answer to your actions,
You just wait and see,
And you will know what happens,
When you mess with my family.*

*Someday I shall find you,
I don't care how long it will take,
Or what I have to do,
I never break a promise I make.*
