

Contract between Plagueis and the Mining Guide of Hesperion IV:

Hesperion mining (hereafter referred to as the party of the first part) is contractually obligated to provide any and all profits and extracted resources to Clan Plagueis (hereafter referred to as the party of the second part). The contract stipulations are as follows:

1. If the party of the first part does not sign the contract, they will be terminated by the party of the second part.
2. If the party of the first part does not abide by the terms outlined above, they will be terminated by the party of the second part.
3. If the party of the first part discloses the existence of the party of the second part to any outside parties, they will be terminated by the party of the second part.

The terms of this agreement can be modified by the party of the second part at any time and function retroactively. Any complaints by the party of the first part can and will result in death instituted by the party of the second part. Even if all contract terms and conditions are met, the party of the second part reserves the right to terminate both the contract and/or the party of the first part at any time and for any reason.
