

Maximum Brevity VIII – Tea time

Rian only celebrates a full fledged tea time on special occasions like birthdays and other anniversaries. But since he grew up between mandalorian people, he got used to drinking tea most times of the day from a young age. That for seeing Rian walking around or sitting somewhere with a mug of tea isn't an uncommon sight to anyone who knows him. Most notably, Rian is into tea bevered from the florets of the Cassius tree as his uncle had such one in his garden. Though being one of his favourite drinks, he prefer to drink it either hot or cold and mixed with milk as Cassius-latte.
