Physical Description At first glance, most could not tell Wiggles from any other Ewok. He has light brown fur, with dark brown to black patches in places. His black eyes and squinting features betray little to the casual observer. One remnant the Ewok carries of his homeland is the blue-dyed head covering of his tribe.		Preferred Weapons * 1 Cane * 1 BlasTech DC-17 Blaster Pistol * 1 Vibroknife
General Aspects
Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better “Wiggles” is extremely competitive and strives to become the best at every task he is given. The benefit of this cutthroat approach to life and work is that he will always give 100%, pushing himself to his physical or mental limits to overcome any task. However, “Wiggles” overzealous ambition makes her insufferable to all but the most patient of companions, making it difficult to make friends while he either proves successful or utterly fails at being the best.		We’ll Break Their Legs “Wiggles can be very protective, and when any of his friends are being bullied or threatened, he will step in to defend them. This can gets “Wiggles” in trouble when he refuses to back down during these exchanges, and sometimes has trouble discerning between friendly teasing and intentional insults. However, because of this fierce loyalty, his friends know that no matter what, “Wiggles” will be there for them.
Personality Aspects
Don’t Call Me Small “Wiggles” is known for walking tall despite being of below average stature. he is quick to anger when called out for his height, and is not afraid of taking on an opponent regardless of their size or intimidation factor. This same tenacity makes “Wiggles” easier to rile up, which can be a good or bad thing depending on the situation at hand.		We Must Protect This House “Wiggles” is devoutly loyal to his House or Clan and will follow orders unquestionably. He would sacrifice his own life to protect his House or Clan from harm. This attitude, however, often clouds his ability to see things from an arbitrary or objective point of view and he can come off as extremely narrow-minded.
Combat Aspects
Minister of War “Wiggles” is utterly devoted to success in combat, no matter the mission, no matter the cost. He has spent his life building himself in the image of war, utilizing a dogmatic regimen that has lead him to a single-minded obsession with military success and requires intense physical and mental training. This training, however, has come at the cost of anything resembling empathy or concern for others - even his superiors and subordinates.		Shoot First, Ask Questions Later If “Wiggles” had been in Greedo’s shoes, Han Solo would be pushing up daisies. He almost always acts on instinct, which typically means he can be seen as impulsive and may not think his actions through, especially in situations during or leading up to combat.

Notes/Extra

Think of Wiggles in the certain terms of a small, angry teddy bear who can kill you if he gets you in his crosshairs.

The original idea I had was that he came from the Sith-spawned Ewoks created by Macron, though of course this history is subjective to Consul's approval. An alternative, more canon-friendly explanation is that Wiggles is a formerly adventure-seeking Ewok who found Naga Sadow, offered his services, and since then has found a home of sorts. He finds no reason not to continue his contract so long as the Clan will have him. A bit bloodthirsty, a bit merciless, but he gets the job done and fits into most overhead storage compartments.
