

Headshot/Image	C'ha Ze Corsair Scavenger Kaminoan Male, Left Handed Height: 2.4m Weight: 80kgs
Physical Description C'ha Ze is a male Kaminoan with pale white skin, no hair, and black eyes with hints of blue on the edges. His veins can be seen popping out from under his skin in a blueish color, because of his age and other stress-related situations he's endured. He stands slightly taller than the average Kaminoan because of an elongated neck extended through surgical stimulation. Around his neck are obvious scarring spots.  He can be seen wearing a light brown robe draped over his body, as well as technogloves and boots for work related activities.		Loadout Weapons * Electrowhip * Vibrolance
General Aspects
Circuit Brained C'ha Ze loves to play with computers and enjoys interacting with them more than he does with people. Some may call him antisocial - and they'd be right.		I'm Getting Too Old For This C'ha Ze has both been there and done that. he thinks he has seen every imaginable scenario of war and battle and survived it all, and that nothing can phase him. The daily grind has almost become too intolerable for C'ha Ze and they are prone to lash out at anyone who attempts to coerce them into another adventure.
Personality Aspects
Do You Like Apples? C'ha Ze is extremely cocksure and headstrong. Possessing a keen wit and exceptional level of intelligence, C'ha Ze will often use his superior intellect to humiliate lesser minds. Basically, he is a kind of a jerk, and that can sometimes get C'ha Ze in a bit of trouble.		Just Plain Selfish C'ha Ze rarely acts without an alternate motive when it comes to lending aid or acting in a situation. Be it greed, power, or something else, almost undoubtedly C'ha Ze is after something more than what he says - though sometimes C'ha Ze is even blunt enough to admit to it. While his self-serving attitude comes as a boon, usually, to his survival and pocketbook, his relationships are often strained by his outright selfish attitude.
Combat Aspects
Combat Slicer While C'ha Ze avoids combat whenever possible, he has no qualms working with technology under the stress and pressure of combat. C'ha Ze has trained himself to keep calm and focus intently on Slicing even while taking blaster fire from cover or when		Too Old To Begin the Training Battle is for the younger generations. Considering C'ha Ze is an old Kaminoan, he simply cannot fight like the others. He's almost useless in a face to face battle against his enemies, being too weak and frail to fight them. This same feeling of helplessness is placed under time constraints. In truth, C’ha Ze almost works better when under duress, and actually needs motivation, typically, when Slicing .	used on stragglers and weak soldiers. While others may feel sympathy to a tortured soul, C’ha Ze will use that weakness against them. It’s the only true weapon he’s got.

Notes/Extra

C’ha Ze (given name Lor Ze) is a Kaminoan exile who used cloned soldiers in dangerous experiments during the clone war involving technology. Rebranded as a Separatist spy by his colleagues, he was exiled and given the Kaminoan “exile name” of “C’ha”.

He would go on to work in many corporate environments as a work horse who attempted to combine his love of genetic superiority with technological advancements. He theorized that forced genetic mutations could eventually cause more perfect genetic mutations in the future with the forced characteristics. He eventually came to work with the Technocratic Guild. However, by this time he was an old man who simply had vast knowledge of corporate environments and had first hand experience in the Clone Wars. This made him a valuable asset to the Technocratic Guild in building perfect soldiers.
