

Headshot/Image	Casey Wellington Recruit Hunter Human Female, Ambidextrous Height: 5'1"ft. , Weight: 129lbs
Physical Description At 23 years of age, Casey is a spry, young adult with brown eyes and brown hair in a ponytail. She has pale, caucasian skin with light freckles on her cheeks. She would be considered a bit chubby for her height, having "curves" around her belly, while also having a medium breast size. She can usually be seen wearing the formal corporate attire of the Capital Enterprises uniform.		Loadout Weapons * Reynolds DE-21 Slugthrower Pistol
General Aspects
Strategist Through a combination of preparing, studying, and analyzing, Casey creates detailed battle plans and tries to think two steps ahead of the enemy. At times, however, this can lead to Casey creating complicated schemes that can baffle less intelligent subordinates.		We'll Break Their Legs Casey can be very protective, and when any of her friends are being bullied or threatened, she will step in to defend them. This can gets Casey in trouble when she refuses to back down during these exchanges, and sometimes has trouble discerning between friendly teasing and intentional insults. However, because of this fierce loyalty, her friends know that no matter what, Casey will be there for them.
Personality Aspects
The Low Republic Casey has a teeming collection of holovids and holopadds of Old Republic entertainment. Her greatest collection revolves around the old smugglers and pirates of that era (leading to her love of slugthrowers). To anyone interested in such things, they would find an avid Old Republic historian. To anyone else though, she could seem childish and ill-prepared for jobs she is perfectly skilled for. Others seem to think of her as immature.		Happy Go...Happy Casey is a very happy and optimistic person. She doesn't think people are naturally evil. This leads to someone who is willing to give lots of second chances and willing to give others the benefit of the doubt. She is truly a joy to be around for many. For others though, they find someone easy to prey upon for good will, potentially using it against her for malicious reasons. While she isn't oblivious, she can be manipulated in safer environments.
Combat Aspects
Hands Up! Through Casey's love of slugthrowers and the Old Republic, one might think of her as unable to face combat. However, through her personal wealth, she gained the top most training in self defense,		The Trading Room Floor Although she dreams about smugglers and space pirates, she would truly rather be fighting through trade and economics on the trading room floor. She's quite cowardly when it comes to large battles military tactics, and white collar warfare. She'll fearlessly take on anyone who stands in her way or feels like they are stealing from Capital Enterprises. However, that same assertiveness might someday get her killed by a superior foe.	and large scale warfare, but finds her home defeating other traders to better sales and deals with economic challenges in sight.

Notes/Extra

Fresh out of the Trade Academy on Serellan 7, Casey Wellington not only did well in school, but achieved high grades in college. During an internship at a well known intergalactic bank, she increased their profit margins by 112%, unknown for such young talent.

She was quickly picked up by Capital Enterprises out of university. Although she finds the Old Republic fascinating, she finds Force Users to be quite repellant, believing they belong in the history books, and not in real life situations.
