Purpose: Propaganda

Background/History: Sphincter Squad is comprised of founding members of The Liberation Front. Steven was approached by Rath Oligard to lead a propaganda effort in order to secretly recruit powerful members into the cause. Similarly to Oligard, Steven Sphincter lost family members due to the destruction caused by the Dark Brotherhood. As he assembled his team of sentients from across many of the systems that were controlled by the Clans, it became more evident that propaganda was just as important as brute force.

Members of Sphincter Squad have unwavering loyalty to The Collective, but their vision lies primarily with the Liberation Front. They view the other two Pillars as necessary evils in order to accomplish their mission. Therefore, they focus their primary efforts on recruiting and propaganda designed solely for the use by Rath Oligard and the Liberation Front.
