

Dear Santa,

Hello Sir, it's Tahiri again. First off, I want thank you for sending me a gift last year, even though I wasn't able to send you a letter, don't exactly know how you knew where I moved to, but still thank you. Second, I know that I may not have been on my best behavior this year, however I still wish to ask a few things of you, not really for me but for others.

The first thing I wish for, is if you could bring a few toys, pretty clothes, some new daggers and knives, and maybe even some games, for a little girl named Reeka. She is the adoptive daughter of my love, Kul'tak Drol. A sweet little girl, very inquisitive, full of energy, always quick on her feet and of the mind. She is a bit on the strange side for some things, but she is very nice, and I believe she has been quite the good girl. Whenever she is given a directions or order, she does it.

Second is for my beloved Kul'tak Drol. Now, I know that he will say that he doesn't want anything, or hasn't been good enough to get anything, but I feel differently. I know that he probably has been a little naughty this year, however he has also been a great help and a wonderful companion. He helped me adjust to Plagueis when Tarentum's homeworld was destroyed. He introduced me to many of the leadership, and many others. Kul also helped me rescue my Master in the swamps of Dagobah, even though since then they really haven't gotten along. But you can't fault him for that, there are a few people who haven't gotten along with Masters unique attributes. If you could bring him a small momento, a new dagger, perhaps even an amulet.

Third would be my Master. I know, I know, he isn't exactly on the Nice list, but he does deserve something. If you could bring him an ancient tome or a holocron that would be great. Even a small decorative blade wouldn't be too much to ask.

Fourth would be all the members of Karness Muur. They have embraced me as their Aedile, even though I've only been a member of Clan Plagueis for almost a year now. For that they should receive something for that. I am so appreciative that they took me in, and honored that they chose me. Each will probably be writing to you, so please bring them something on their list even if they're on naughty list.

The fifth thing I wish for is for all the members of Clan Plagueis is to get at least one thing on their list.

Sixth thing I wish for is that any and all surviving members of Clan Tarentum to be safe. Please make sure they each get a little something, especially my Grandmaster Hades. He has been through a lot.

I wish nothing for myself, except for one small thing, that for my happiness to keep going, I haven't felt so much since the first time I inducted into Tarentum.

Thank you for traveling all over the universe to deliver gifts. There is so much happiness you bring to so many people in one cycle. I wish I could help you, but I'll try in my own way and do my best the rest of the year to bring happiness to others.

Sincerely,

Tahiri Khan Drakon Night Thorn Di Morte Tarentae.
