

The Master of Slaves

DENYING YOUR WORTH

The holographic image of your face tells many stories. It tells of accomplishments. It tells of trials. It tells of tribulations. The lines around your eyes show your concern at gaining the praise of one Bear-Panda-Man. The Master at Arms is not your Master unless you are a slave. He is not your Master unless you bow to his will, unless you accept his "expert judgment", unless you accept his valuation of your devotion.

I ask you, Brotherhood member, do you really trust the word of the Master at Arms? Do you trust anyone who yells "DENIED" at you from the shadows. Do you trust anyone that eats at the table scraps of Grand Masters. Oh yes, it is the Grand Master's that feed this bear. They control him, they tell him that the only way he can be fed the delicious nectar of fermented honey and wheat.

This Panda-Man-Bear-Taun-Taun seeks to devalue you. He seeks to ruin your worth. It is time to fight back. It is time to deny the denier. It is time to reject the rejector. It is time to say enough. Destroy the Master at Arms and reclaim your value as a sentient being.

Rath Bringing Wrath to the Brotherhood

Who can tell you what you have earned?

This man, who pretends to be a bear, who pretends to be a panda. Why would you allow him to dictate your value? Dark Brotherhood, the old Collective has a saying. He who eats with Bear-Panda-Man, is eaten by Bear-Panda Man.

Resist!

Now is your time to fight. Do not accept his denial. Do not allow him to tell your superiors no. What does Man-Panda-Bear-Pig know?

Your worth Is more than His approval

Can you remain silent while your apprentices beg for their just rewards?

He will not Drink with you! He will only drink with Grand Masters
