DIA interactions have been keep brief and agents have only encountered her bubbly side. Observations note possible splintered personalities. Further observation required to discover how many exist

Daily Routine:

Kylina Gra can typically be found near the port during the late evening hours out of site in alleys near main streets. In the evening subject can typically be located at one of the local bars getting "reckt like a |\|00B", "Nona ja buiznez, kraffin 'ell!" (observed interaction, bodies found later) in her own words on separate evenings. Subject appears to sleep from early morning until mid afternoon.

Observations of Note:

Seems to have multiple personalities, while she carries three blaster pistols when need arises she never seems to constantly go for the same one, and sometimes she forgoes the blasters for use of random debris at hand.

Posture, tone, accent, and word choices change almost hourly.

Not a Force user.
