

Rado "Radio" Theon

Rado "Radio" Theon is a male Kiffar who currently serves as a Medic for the Collective.

Medical Training

Radio received extensive medical training from the most esteemed medical program in the galaxy, the Coruscant College of Medical Sciences. His abilities as a surgeon and vocal distrust of Force Users led Rath Oligard to recruit him as a field medic in the Collective Military.

Personality

Radio is known as a bit of a coward, preferring the comfort of a lab or medical facility to a field hospital or action on the front line. Radio has been known to prefer the feel of a deck of sabaac cards and a glass of corellian brandy to the cold durasteel of a blaster. Though he is a coward in the purest sense, his duty as a physician will overpower his fear of combat when lives are on the line.
