

Dear trueEdgeLord,

I hope Arx is nice this time of year. SpaceWeather app tells me its extra dark this time of year and I know how much you and the kids love the dark side oppressing all happiness. I can't tell you where I am but know I miss you very much. I'm supposed to be on a diplomatic mission but its turned into warfare. Sith, am I right?

Make sure you wear lots of black eyeliner when I return. You know how much I miss edgelords.
