

Skid,

I hope this message reaches you. If not it means my ship is gone and you had better be gone as well or so help me I'll destroy you in ways that can only be described as chaotic. Things are going fine here considering the barrage of false attacks under our banner. This will surely be a great way to earn credits no matter the outcome. Keep my ship safe and I'll be seeing you soon. Break it and I'll be seeing you sooner.

With overbearing pressure and looming doom,
KANO
