(Additional notes here including some backstory.)

Telaris "Mav" Cantor was born on Corellia in 7BBY. He was orphaned at a young age and taken in by an underworld gang who recruited children to do their bidding in return for shelter and food. Telaris was eventually rescued by a powerful Force Wielder who saw Telaris' potential and sensitivity to the force after the young boy tried to steal his lightsaber but failed miserably. This Force Disciple would eventually become his master and take him of Corellia and begin his training. During his time with his master, Telaris would come to learn the universe is not black and white but rather many different shades of grey and everyone is given a choice as to what they do within it. This is where he would learn to appreciate and value the honesty of others.

Telaris joined the Brotherhood shortly after his master's death in 12ABY and would grow and flourish in their ranks. Eventually becoming Grand Master himself.
