Calo is a human male of average height and weight. He maintains a slightly stocky build. He keeps his grey hair and beard in a short, military style. His eyes are brown with noticeable bags under them due to hours of not sleeping while focusing on his studies. His skin and body are worn after many years of military service as well as many years of field work. While he tries to maintain his posture, he walks slightly slumped over and the constant pain he is in shows on his face. He still keeps his military uniforms meticulously pressed to maintain his command presence. His skin is worn and battered but no other markings are noticeable on his body.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Synergy WLD-5 Peacekeeper</li> <li>* Tostovin Munitions Micro-Grenade Launcher</li> </ul>
General Aspects
Meticulous          Calo puts a lot of thought into every detail. Literally everything is analyzed and planned out. His research is often very thorough and even his plans are detailed down to the most minute detail. Though this has allowed him to discover things others have missed in his field, it also means that there are often great delays in his work. When he finds a detail that he had previously missed, this causes him to have to backtrack often several steps to ensure that everything now makes sense.	Many Hours of Study          Calo is known to go all into his work. He will spend days locked in his private quarters rummaging through old texts and tablets compiling it all into a central database. While this time alone allows him to think without distractions, it also prevents him from having any social life. There are a great many rumors about him amongst his staff, leaving many people timid and unable to get a read on his personality.
Personality Aspects
Serious Most of the Time          Due to his highly analytical and matter of fact nature, Calo sees little reason to be social beyond the occasional greetings of respected superiors. Those under him stay out of his way but do hold an odd respect for him. This prevents him from making friends or interacting in social situations.	Too Old for this Shit          Calo is a seasoned war veteran, well respected Professor, and curator of the Praxium. Though all his achievements have taken a toll on him both physically and mentally. This has left him with little desire to get involved in anything not closely associated his field of study.

Draws Only When Needed
 Calo does have a blaster pistol for personal protection, whoever he has also requested personal guards do to his advanced age. This means that while able to defend himself with his blaster alone, he chooses to employ his guards to prevent him from injury.

Let it go Boom
 Calo will not hesitate to draw his grenade launch to clear a tomb or other obstruction if it's between him and his goal. This goes for enemies as well. When confronted with a challenge, Calo sees no issue with removing it via a series of large explosions. Even if it means that artifacts get damaged losing them forever.
