Setting :

The title screen transcends seamlessly to the view of the planet Zsoldos with a zoom into the view of a few Immobilizer 418-class Heavy Cruisers in orbit overlooking Zsoldos. Continuous zoom through the view glass of one of the Heavy Cruisers in the command deck with crew and officers tending to their stations. Two soldiers flank Val and Declan who stand in the center of the command deck with the soldiers as sentries and bridge protection.

Val : Looking over statistics on a holopad with graphs and charts “Our profits are only increasing with each passing week, the only real concern we have is constant repairs and ship replacements due to one of our members of Deathwatch constantly using our clans ships as his own personal bombs, and another killing our own units due to ... and I quote ‘Incompetence or lack of actual worth.’”

Declan : “I can assume that would be Kano and Dral then? They get results however, what is their quarter profit in relation?”

Val : Flipping through the holopad “ Seems they’re both are in the top 10 of clan profits, though should we really encourage this behavior?”

Declan : “Our clan's belief is credits, not words. They’re doing their job and turning a profit, leave it be”

Begin rotating camera view towards the bridge viewpoint around Declan and Val

Bridge Crewman #4 : “Sir, we’re receiving a transmission from the Ascendancy”

Declan : “Possibly another high-end contract from Plagueis, patch it through”

The hologram of Ronovi emerges with him pacing in and out of view.

Ronovi : "You've made a terrible mistake Vizsla, Let this be the day you burn as the might of the Sith glass your little hideouts to the core of the planet!"

Val : "What's the meaning of thi..."

Ronovi : "Don't play innocent! You know very well what the meaning of this is, I have your assassin and you will soon meet the same fate he has."

Declan : "Let me assure you Lord Ronovi, We have no idea what you're talking about. I can assume it must be due to some assassination attempt?"

Still pacing Ronovi will settle into center view of the Hologram

Ronovi : "So you do have an idea, well I think it's time I respond to it in kind"

See the Ascendancy fleet warp into view from the bridge view.
