Great Jedi War XIV
HOMEFRONT

War has come to ARX. THE COLLECTIVE—long in their zealous campaign to rid the Galaxy of Force Users—have exposed the location of the DARK BROTHERHOOD's seat of power. Their vanguard has laid siege to the entire system with a new kind of SOLDIER, engineered to eradicate Sith, Jedi, and any who stand alongside them.

Grand Master TELARIS CANTOR has called upon the SEVEN CLANS to pay their dues and aid the DARK COUNCIL in defending their homefront. A reward has been promised to any others that choose to answer the call—including the tentative alliances with the SEVERIAN PRINCIPATE and TENIXIR REVENANTS.

Meanwhile, the Grand Master has put his own plans into motion—an ominous vision of a new kind of Empire.
