

Mandaboo

A poem for the competition: The power of words

Written and submitted by Appius "Zappius" Wight

*You brought me laughter
When I felt only pain
You were the sun in my life
When I was shackled in chains*

*Who cares if we're different?
Who cares if we're not!
You got in my heart
And put me on the spot*

*With tints of lavender
Behind cheeks of blue
All I knew I wanted
Was to be with you*

*From Rekkaid to Mandalore
We've been through Hell
But we've become stronger
And have stories to tell*

*We might be Mandalorians
One Chiss named Ankira
One Force User too
Like water that flows in rivers
I will always be your Mandaboo*
