

Form: Complex Single Stanza (ABAB)

It is hidden from this world, perhaps somewhere in a dark corner, its power cannot be described in one word, but it cannot be hidden forever.

Now we have the artifact within reach,
just find and use it,
then there is only a decision for each, whether we should rather destroy it.

With great power darkness creeps into the heart, to the one who places the cards of destiny on the table, to the one who wants to become of history a part,
find the artifact and use it if you are able.
