

Dandoran: The Fields of Promiscuity - Pleasure Pools

In orbit above Dandoran is the Kalevalan Star Yacht, The Fields of Promiscuity, a symbol of pure decadence, self-indulgence, greed, and desire. Every floor is a homage to the deepest desires made manifest and decorated spectacularly. Rich woods and brilliant marble trimmed in gold and colourful frescoes of eloquent beauty, pervade the guest spaces.

The Pleasure Pools are as abundant as any floor of The Fields of Promiscuity. Pathways of perfectly cut marble gilded in brilliant gold wove between vast pools of water, both cold and hot. Thick tendrils of steaming air make visibility difficult in places, while bright artificial light does little to improve vision. The mist makes for the illusion of privacy and an unpleasant slipping hazard. The thick fog also has the unfortunate effect of voices seemingly coming from out of nowhere.
