Note: Suspect may not look like this

Key points:

- Target is usually seen in the local cantina of any city or settlement he may be in
- Target appears to have somewhat of a “legendary” debt in the galaxy
- Target usually travels with a big Bantha, meaning he will be easy to spot
- Target is both adept with blasters and lightsabers
- Force sensitivity is unclear on this target as he’s only been seen disappearing and reappearing from view (which can be accomplished with stealth belts)
- Target uses a Solari kyber crystal. Must recover at all cost
