

General Zentru'la

COMMANDING OFFICER

Vornskr Battalion

General Zentru'la is the commanding officer of the Vornskr Battalion, a mercenary company with links to Clan Taldryan. General Zentru'la was first encountered by The Seer on Dandoran. His forces have repeatedly been a thorn in our side, and must be eliminated as high priority

Past Engagements

---

General Zentru'la and his entourage were first encountered by The Seer in the Darkness Rose Telsniw on Dandoran. The two engaged in single combat, and Telsniw was able to get a good idea of his combat credentials. More recently the Brotherhood sent Zentru'la to investigate our research on Korriban. Reports from Aline Sarva of The Shadebreeders are consistent with those of Telsniw.

Zentru'la is a mercenary in command of a brigade called the Vornskr Battalion. Their forces are public knowledge. We have attempted to hire Zentru'la's services, but he remains loyal to the Brotherhood.

Combat Style

General Zentru'la favours a repeating cannon of the MWC-35c model, also known as Staccato Lightning. The weapon has been modified to have even greater power than the stock model. He is lethally accurate with this weapon in full automatic mode at medium range, and has been known to take out targets at a long distance. He comes armed with a variety of explosive weapons when his line of sight is broken.

Zentru'la is adaptable and any Mortis forces planning to engage the General must be prepared for anything. Telsniw reports that after she deflected his initial shots, he threw his weapon aside and shoulder charged her to the ground. Telsniw and Sarva both reported that his armour repels lightsabers, and is believed to be made of Beskar.

Immediate Allies

General Zentru'la is most dangerous when commanding a strike team. He has most often been seen in battle with a Jedi knight, Lilina Mirin, and a shistavenan cyborg, Masakado. These three possess formidable teamwork, and together make an extremely dangerous team.

Lilina

Lilina was once Sarva's student, and as a result our data on her is extremely thorough. She is a student of the light side, and devoted to using the Force to protect and help the weak. She still clings to the ideas taught to her by Sarva before Sarva saw the wisdom of our cause.

In combat, she uses a double-bladed lightsaber with a white blade, which one belonged to one of our crystal ascendants. She is extremely defensive in combat. Forces are advised not to engage Lilina in combat. It isn't worth the time. Zentru'la uses her as a distraction to soak up enemy fire while the rest find opportunities to attack.

Masakado

Masakado is an assassin who specialises in stealth and bladed weapons. Little is known about him, but his body was believed to have been built specifically to amplify his skills as an assassin. Masakado is extremely dangerous and is believed to be in possession of a Sith Sword.

Masakado is a potential weakness. He is desperate for a cure for an unknown medical condition. Sarva was able to turn him against Zentru'la by promising a solution, but he is now back on the General's side. More efforts must be made in this area.

General Zentru'la's Vornskr Battalion is a mercenary unit under his command. Zentru'la advertises these forces publicly on the holonet, so this information is believed to be up to date and accurate. They use standard-issue Imperial military hardware.

Army

The Vornskr Battalion contains 456 standard infantry troopers and 152 heavy assault troopers. Zentru'la often joins the heavy assault troopers in battle personally. Their ground forces also contain a small number of walkers and hover tanks

Navy

Zentru'la's team deploy from The Harbinger, a modified Upsilon Class Shuttle. This ship should be eliminated at all opportunities, but is known to behave erratically and unpredictably in combat. Rumours the pilot is drunk have not yet been confirmed. The Vornskr Battalion also owns a Marauder-class corvette, 12 X-Wings, and a Sentinel-class Landing Craft Flight
