Description

The Bogling is a small Mammal creature native to the planet Bogano. During the events of the GJW XV, crystals from the Children of Mortis attached to Boglins within a research lab. Unlike basic Boglins that run, jump, and change direction to escape predators, Bogling Ascendants use these abilities to charge predators directly. Due to their small size and speed, they are able to latch onto their prey and move away from their target's attempts of removal.

Aspect/Upgrade Slots

- 1 slot allowing Aspects of type Creature Cosmetic
- 1 slot allowing Aspects of type Creature Personality
- 1 slot allowing Aspects of type Creature Physical

Granted Item Aspects

- Tameable: Bogling Ascendant has had its behavior modified to accept the presence of humanoids, but the crystals embedded to their skin give them the compulsion to view humanoids as pets. As creature handling goes up, a member can better resist the creature's training. Untrained (+0), this creature will adopt a humanoid with a cute stare and begin the training process. As creature handling skills improve, a member can understand, resist, and prepare others of the creatures influence. To manage creature with full control achieved with mastery (+5).
