- 1) Blur – Imagine Dragons https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=so23_c7lXno
Plagued with anxiety and a constant need to prove his place, Nathan struggles to find contentment in day-to-day life. Especially when faced with his peers, who despite being older and more experienced he compares himself to. Despite the content of the song and the relatability of it for him, it's one that keep a upbeat enough tune that so long as no ones really listening he can play in public.
- 2) Crush – Polyphia <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aJPGXQQicFg>
Songs with lyrics can often be distracting for someone deeply focusing on their work. This instrumental piece is one Nathan could often find himself listening to for some extra stimulation while doing particularly benign tasks that are boring and/or repetitive.
- 3) A Shot in the Dark – Smash into Pieces

Less one that Nathan would listen to IC, but one that applies to the piece of hope that keeps him going. Hopeful that he could land among the stars, finally found. Despite his own doubts, there is that want for a brighter future and the want to achieve it which is why he works as hard as he does, without realizing he's already there just yet.
- 4) Tech Noir – Gunship <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Zd23T-1SDeo>
No huge character links, however Nathan would enjoy this song. It's a bit unusual with the opening, dark but interesting leading into a very pleasant song. Something easy to listen to while doing other things, but also very enjoyable to just sink into, which is great for a busy young adult.
